Source of words

Did you write them yourself or did they exist already?

If words existed already, name of writer:

N.B. words remain in copyright for 70 years after the writer's death so if you are using existing words please attach the written permission of the writer or copyright holder if your words are in copyright.

Did you receive any help with the music?

If yes, [and this is essential] please give full details:

Is there anything else you want to tell us about your carol?

Continue telling us about your carol if you wish...

Please be aware that SWCS reserve the right to arrange and record your carol as necessary, and reprint the words and music to perform your entry in current and future years. Tick here to accept: _____

Checklist of what to include in your entry:

- A score of your carol - including the words and the music - notated to the best of your ability.
- A recording of the carol - sung by the composer/composers.
(If you are entering the senior competition record as much of your piece as you can.)
Recordings can be submitted on CD or memory stick (clearly labelled with your name) attached by email or sent by digital transfer (WeTransfer or similar)
- A stamped self-addressed envelope if you'd like your materials to be returned.
- For senior entries which use existing copyright words, you will also need written permission from the copyright-holder.

NOW make sure your entry arrives with us no later than Monday 2nd November.
You can submit it by post or email to:
